What is EDGE?

Economic Development Grants Experience (EDGE)

- EDA's end-to-end grants management system: A one-stop shop for applicants, co-applicants, Tribal Partners, Economic Development Districts (EDDs), and project stakeholders

Key Benefits of EDGE

- Applicants, co-applicants, Tribal Partners, EDDs, and project stakeholders will complete applications and curing through the EDGE Portal
- Provides a modernized, intuitive, and user-friendly interface for applicants
- Increases automation and decreases manual data entry and duplicate data entry
- Visibility into status of grants and action items for both EDA Team Members and applicants

How to Access EDGE

- EDGE Website: https://sfgrants.eda.gov/
- Links found on funding opportunity on Grants.gov and on the EDA website www.eda.gov/edge

EDA Funding Opportunities

At EDA, we understand that some communities need help developing a plan and figuring out where to start their efforts. Others need critical infrastructure that will allow business to locate or expand operations. EDA helps communities at every point along the way – from planning to public works, EDA is here to help. Please find information on our traditional economic development programs here.
